

TWO CENTS.

SCRANTON, PA., FRIDAY MORNING, MAY 7, 1897.

TWO CENTS.

THE TURKS WIN A BIG FIGHT

City of Pharsalos Is Reported to Have Fallen.

DECISIVE BATTLE AT HAND

Turks Claim to Have Won Along the Line.

The Powers Decide to Intervene. Their Ministers Instructed to Propose Mediation Between Greece and Turkey -- Greek Battalion Fights Well in a Skirmish with Turks at Philippada -- Imperial Army Moving.

Larissa, May 6--3.50 p. m.--The Turks have captured Pharsalos.

Athens, May 6--A dispatch from the front announces that Prince Constantine's army retired yesterday evening in perfect order, upon Domokos, about thirteen miles south of Pharsalos, where the Greeks will await the attack of the Turks. Pharsalos has been abandoned and telegraphic communication with that place has been cut off.

It is authoritatively announced that the powers have intervened and proposed mediation. The Turkish minister of war has received the following dispatch from Edhem Pasha, the Turkish commander-in-chief in Thessaly, dated yesterday evening:

"The Turks today won a great victory. The Turkish shells are commencing to fall near Pharsalos. Details will be forwarded later."

The "Sabah" says that the division of Turkish troops commanded by Hakkid Pasha has carried the first line of the Greek defenses at Volostino, and that the attack was proceeding against the other lines.

Before Pharsalos, May 6--It was ascertained at day-break that the Greeks had evacuated Pharsalos during the night. The majority of the Greek forces are retreating on Domokos. The baggage and artillery took the main road and the infantry crossed the hills.

FEDERAL APPOINTMENTS.

James N. Tyner Assistant Attorney General for the Postoffice.

Washington, May 6--James N. Tyner of Indiana, has been appointed assistant attorney general for the postoffice department. Mr. Tyner had entered on the discharge of his duties.

The president today sent the following nominations to the senate: Frederick A. Trille, jr., register of the land office at Prescott, Ariz.

ANN ODELIA DISS DE BAR AGAIN.

Milwaukee Theosophists Agitated Over Her Appearance.

Milwaukee, May 6--The Theosophists in Milwaukee are greatly stirred up over the discovery that they had been entertaining the noted Odelia Diss De Bar, alias Vera Ava, an infamously famous woman.

Headquarters in New York were communicated with, and from the answer returned there was no doubt in the minds of the Milwaukee members that this was Diss De Bar.

TWO WOMEN AS ONE MAN'S WIDOW.

One Has His Estate and the Other Is Trying to Get It.

Woodbury, N. J., May 6--The Griswold will case came up in the Gloucester county orphans' court this morning. According to testimony taken today William Griswold, a glassblower, who had formerly lived in Philadelphia, went to Montreal, Canada, and in 1869 married Mary Ann Phillips.

Next, the appropriation ordinance bobbed up in the shape of a project by Colonel Sanderson to substitute by wa-

THE PARIS FIRE HORROR GROWS

Full Extent of Loss of Life Believed Not to Be Yet Known.

ESCAPE OF A NEW YORK WOMAN

Mrs. Gilmour Leaps Through a Window--Death of Duchesse D'Alencon--She Refused to Leave Until the Visitors Had Departed--A Mother's Heroism.

DR. HOLLANDER'S OFFICE.

Made Secretary of the Bimetallite Conference Commission.

Washington, May 6--Dr. J. H. Hollander has been appointed secretary of the international bimetallic conference commission.

BIG BLAZE IN NEW YORK.

Thirty Firemen Overcome by Smoke. Several Fatalities--An Incendiary Thought to Have Perished.

New York, May 6--The interior of the large cold storage warehouse of the Merchants Refrigerating company, occupying the upper floors of the five-story building, 159 and 163 Chambers street, was almost completely destroyed by fire tonight.

The fire broke out in the basement of the building, which was formerly old Chambers street, where the fire started, were overcome by smoke. Fireman John Rheinhardt missed his way in leaving the cellar, and was finally taken out unconscious. He died in an ambulance on the way to a hospital.

The first floor of 161 Chambers street, in the basement of which the fire started, was taken from the cellar by firemen John K. Murphy and John O'Connell. They were both overcome by smoke while rescuing Rheinhardt and had to be taken to the hospital.

The fire broke out in the basement of the building, which was formerly old Chambers street, where the fire started, were overcome by smoke. Fireman John Rheinhardt missed his way in leaving the cellar, and was finally taken out unconscious.

The fire broke out in the basement of the building, which was formerly old Chambers street, where the fire started, were overcome by smoke. Fireman John Rheinhardt missed his way in leaving the cellar, and was finally taken out unconscious.

The fire broke out in the basement of the building, which was formerly old Chambers street, where the fire started, were overcome by smoke. Fireman John Rheinhardt missed his way in leaving the cellar, and was finally taken out unconscious.

The fire broke out in the basement of the building, which was formerly old Chambers street, where the fire started, were overcome by smoke. Fireman John Rheinhardt missed his way in leaving the cellar, and was finally taken out unconscious.

The fire broke out in the basement of the building, which was formerly old Chambers street, where the fire started, were overcome by smoke. Fireman John Rheinhardt missed his way in leaving the cellar, and was finally taken out unconscious.

MUNICIPAL LEAGUE.

Messrs. Hornblower and MacVeagh Address the Louisville Meeting.

Louisville, May 6--The evening session of the National Municipal league, which began its annual meeting here yesterday, was occupied by William P. Hornblower and Horace E. Deming, of New York, and Franklin MacVeagh.

The Abbe Marbot says that the Comtesse Villeneuve returned to search for her two daughters, failed to find them and perished herself.

LUCHESSA D'ALENCON'S DEATH.

It is stated in the newspapers that Mlle de L., the daughter of a well known colonel, visited the Duc de Vendome, son of the Duc d'Alencon, yesterday, and repeated a conversation she had with the late Duchesse d'Alencon, who is one of the victims, just before the catastrophe.

"I was talking to the duchess in front of the stall, where I was assisting when I heard a cry of fire and immediately said to the duchess: 'Let us go, madame. Come at once.'"

"I saw the crowd rush from the exits and the flames spreading from hanging to hanging around us, while drops of burning tar fell upon us. I took the duchess by the waist and was dragging her away. I repeated: 'You must come, madame.'"

"I dragged her a few paces, but with a brusque movement she released herself, repeating: 'No! No! I will remain.'"

THEY WANT MORE WORK

The Only Thing That Can Be Suggested to Improve the Condition of Luzerne Miners.

Wilkes-Barre, May 6--The legislative committee investigating the condition of affairs in the anthracite region held its first meeting in this city today.

Thomas O. Evans, of Nanticoke, was the first witness sworn. Said he is a breast miner employed by the Susquehanna Coal company. He receives $1.00 per car of coal mined. In ten hours two men are supposed to send out six cars.

Since January he has been working in the neighborhood of twelve or fourteen days a month. In the month of March he earned $35, lives in his own house, owns the company store, and has a family of eleven to keep.

Another amendment agreed to provide for a continuance of the investigation of the condition of the seal in Luzerne county. The sundry civil bill was passed late in the day.

During the day Mr. Bacon (Georgia), introduced a joint resolution deprecating war and denouncing the policy of the government in favor of arbitration.

The resolution was referred to the committee on foreign relations. The Republicans of the house today followed up their recent endorsement of Speaker Reed's policy of postponing the appointment of committees by establishing the policy of bi-weekly meetings through the adoption of a resolution reported by the committee on rules providing that the house shall meet on Mondays and Thursdays until further action.

On this resolution the Democrats and Populists were solidly arrayed against the resolution and it was adopted by a vote of 101 to 83 after a partisan debate.

The resolution adopted by the Democrats and Populists was solidly arrayed against the resolution and it was adopted by a vote of 101 to 83 after a partisan debate.

Another amendment agreed to provide for a continuance of the investigation of the condition of the seal in Luzerne county. The sundry civil bill was passed late in the day.

During the day Mr. Bacon (Georgia), introduced a joint resolution deprecating war and denouncing the policy of the government in favor of arbitration.

The resolution was referred to the committee on foreign relations. The Republicans of the house today followed up their recent endorsement of Speaker Reed's policy of postponing the appointment of committees by establishing the policy of bi-weekly meetings through the adoption of a resolution reported by the committee on rules providing that the house shall meet on Mondays and Thursdays until further action.

On this resolution the Democrats and Populists were solidly arrayed against the resolution and it was adopted by a vote of 101 to 83 after a partisan debate.

The resolution adopted by the Democrats and Populists was solidly arrayed against the resolution and it was adopted by a vote of 101 to 83 after a partisan debate.

Another amendment agreed to provide for a continuance of the investigation of the condition of the seal in Luzerne county. The sundry civil bill was passed late in the day.

During the day Mr. Bacon (Georgia), introduced a joint resolution deprecating war and denouncing the policy of the government in favor of arbitration.

The resolution was referred to the committee on foreign relations. The Republicans of the house today followed up their recent endorsement of Speaker Reed's policy of postponing the appointment of committees by establishing the policy of bi-weekly meetings through the adoption of a resolution reported by the committee on rules providing that the house shall meet on Mondays and Thursdays until further action.

On this resolution the Democrats and Populists were solidly arrayed against the resolution and it was adopted by a vote of 101 to 83 after a partisan debate.

The resolution adopted by the Democrats and Populists was solidly arrayed against the resolution and it was adopted by a vote of 101 to 83 after a partisan debate.

SENATE PASSES SUNDRY CIVIL BILL

Mr. Bacon, of Georgia, Offers Resolutions Deprecating War.

Washington, May 6--The senate today agreed to an amendment to the sundry civil bill, revoking the order of President Cleveland made on February 22, establishing forest reserves aggregating 17,000,000 acres.

The debate brought out much criticism of Mr. Cleveland's order. Senators Pettigrew, Wilson, Canner, Hawkins and White speaking against it. Mr. Gray (Delaware) defended the course of the president, pointing out that it was the result of an inquiry authorized by congress and conducted by the national academy of science.

Mr. Allison endeavored to have the amendment restricted so as to leave the question of revocation to the president, but he was defeated on a ye and naye vote 14 to 32.

Mr. Gorman made a point of order against the amendment which was sustained. The senate was defeated 23 to 25. The amendment was then agreed to without division.

Another amendment agreed to provide for a continuance of the investigation of the condition of the seal in Luzerne county. The sundry civil bill was passed late in the day.

During the day Mr. Bacon (Georgia), introduced a joint resolution deprecating war and denouncing the policy of the government in favor of arbitration.

The resolution was referred to the committee on foreign relations. The Republicans of the house today followed up their recent endorsement of Speaker Reed's policy of postponing the appointment of committees by establishing the policy of bi-weekly meetings through the adoption of a resolution reported by the committee on rules providing that the house shall meet on Mondays and Thursdays until further action.

On this resolution the Democrats and Populists were solidly arrayed against the resolution and it was adopted by a vote of 101 to 83 after a partisan debate.

The resolution adopted by the Democrats and Populists was solidly arrayed against the resolution and it was adopted by a vote of 101 to 83 after a partisan debate.

Another amendment agreed to provide for a continuance of the investigation of the condition of the seal in Luzerne county. The sundry civil bill was passed late in the day.

During the day Mr. Bacon (Georgia), introduced a joint resolution deprecating war and denouncing the policy of the government in favor of arbitration.

The resolution was referred to the committee on foreign relations. The Republicans of the house today followed up their recent endorsement of Speaker Reed's policy of postponing the appointment of committees by establishing the policy of bi-weekly meetings through the adoption of a resolution reported by the committee on rules providing that the house shall meet on Mondays and Thursdays until further action.

On this resolution the Democrats and Populists were solidly arrayed against the resolution and it was adopted by a vote of 101 to 83 after a partisan debate.

The resolution adopted by the Democrats and Populists was solidly arrayed against the resolution and it was adopted by a vote of 101 to 83 after a partisan debate.

Another amendment agreed to provide for a continuance of the investigation of the condition of the seal in Luzerne county. The sundry civil bill was passed late in the day.

During the day Mr. Bacon (Georgia), introduced a joint resolution deprecating war and denouncing the policy of the government in favor of arbitration.

The resolution was referred to the committee on foreign relations. The Republicans of the house today followed up their recent endorsement of Speaker Reed's policy of postponing the appointment of committees by establishing the policy of bi-weekly meetings through the adoption of a resolution reported by the committee on rules providing that the house shall meet on Mondays and Thursdays until further action.

On this resolution the Democrats and Populists were solidly arrayed against the resolution and it was adopted by a vote of 101 to 83 after a partisan debate.

THEY WANT MORE WORK

The Only Thing That Can Be Suggested to Improve the Condition of Luzerne Miners.

Wilkes-Barre, May 6--The legislative committee investigating the condition of affairs in the anthracite region held its first meeting in this city today.

Thomas O. Evans, of Nanticoke, was the first witness sworn. Said he is a breast miner employed by the Susquehanna Coal company. He receives $1.00 per car of coal mined. In ten hours two men are supposed to send out six cars.

Since January he has been working in the neighborhood of twelve or fourteen days a month. In the month of March he earned $35, lives in his own house, owns the company store, and has a family of eleven to keep.

Another amendment agreed to provide for a continuance of the investigation of the condition of the seal in Luzerne county. The sundry civil bill was passed late in the day.

During the day Mr. Bacon (Georgia), introduced a joint resolution deprecating war and denouncing the policy of the government in favor of arbitration.

The resolution was referred to the committee on foreign relations. The Republicans of the house today followed up their recent endorsement of Speaker Reed's policy of postponing the appointment of committees by establishing the policy of bi-weekly meetings through the adoption of a resolution reported by the committee on rules providing that the house shall meet on Mondays and Thursdays until further action.

On this resolution the Democrats and Populists were solidly arrayed against the resolution and it was adopted by a vote of 101 to 83 after a partisan debate.

The resolution adopted by the Democrats and Populists was solidly arrayed against the resolution and it was adopted by a vote of 101 to 83 after a partisan debate.

Another amendment agreed to provide for a continuance of the investigation of the condition of the seal in Luzerne county. The sundry civil bill was passed late in the day.

During the day Mr. Bacon (Georgia), introduced a joint resolution deprecating war and denouncing the policy of the government in favor of arbitration.

The resolution was referred to the committee on foreign relations. The Republicans of the house today followed up their recent endorsement of Speaker Reed's policy of postponing the appointment of committees by establishing the policy of bi-weekly meetings through the adoption of a resolution reported by the committee on rules providing that the house shall meet on Mondays and Thursdays until further action.

On this resolution the Democrats and Populists were solidly arrayed against the resolution and it was adopted by a vote of 101 to 83 after a partisan debate.

The resolution adopted by the Democrats and Populists was solidly arrayed against the resolution and it was adopted by a vote of 101 to 83 after a partisan debate.

Another amendment agreed to provide for a continuance of the investigation of the condition of the seal in Luzerne county. The sundry civil bill was passed late in the day.

During the day Mr. Bacon (Georgia), introduced a joint resolution deprecating war and denouncing the policy of the government in favor of arbitration.

The resolution was referred to the committee on foreign relations. The Republicans of the house today followed up their recent endorsement of Speaker Reed's policy of postponing the appointment of committees by establishing the policy of bi-weekly meetings through the adoption of a resolution reported by the committee on rules providing that the house shall meet on Mondays and Thursdays until further action.

On this resolution the Democrats and Populists were solidly arrayed against the resolution and it was adopted by a vote of 101 to 83 after a partisan debate.

The resolution adopted by the Democrats and Populists was solidly arrayed against the resolution and it was adopted by a vote of 101 to 83 after a partisan debate.

THE WAR IN CUBA.

Aguirre's Death Confirmed--A Spanish Gunboat Prevents the Landing of an Expedition.

Havana, May 6--The escort of a railroad train running between Tunas and Sancti Spiritus, Province of Santa Clara, on Monday last, discovered another dynamite bomb on the rails with electric wires connected to it. The discovery saved a passenger train from disaster.

Confirmation has been received in official circles of the death of Charles Aguirre, the insurgent leader, who was killed in a recent engagement with the Spanish troops. Important documents found upon his person show among other things, that General Maximo Gomez is in bad health.

The Spanish gunboat Satellite, at Caney, near Tunas, saw a suspicious-looking steamer making signals. The gunboat fired fifteen shots at the steamer, which eventually disappeared. The Satellite returned and reconnoitered the coast in the vicinity of Guaiyanes, Pinaro Banao, and harbor of Paola Alto.

While so doing the gunboat sighted a detachment of insurgent cavalry, evidently awaiting the landing of a filibustering expedition. Fifteen shells were fired at the insurgent force, which dispersed.

Another amendment agreed to provide for a continuance of the investigation of the condition of the seal in Luzerne county. The sundry civil bill was passed late in the day.

During the day Mr. Bacon (Georgia), introduced a joint resolution deprecating war and denouncing the policy of the government in favor of arbitration.

The resolution was referred to the committee on foreign relations. The Republicans of the house today followed up their recent endorsement of Speaker Reed's policy of postponing the appointment of committees by establishing the policy of bi-weekly meetings through the adoption of a resolution reported by the committee on rules providing that the house shall meet on Mondays and Thursdays until further action.

On this resolution the Democrats and Populists were solidly arrayed against the resolution and it was adopted by a vote of 101 to 83 after a partisan debate.

The resolution adopted by the Democrats and Populists was solidly arrayed against the resolution and it was adopted by a vote of 101 to 83 after a partisan debate.

Another amendment agreed to provide for a continuance of the investigation of the condition of the seal in Luzerne county. The sundry civil bill was passed late in the day.

During the day Mr. Bacon (Georgia), introduced a joint resolution deprecating war and denouncing the policy of the government in favor of arbitration.

The resolution was referred to the committee on foreign relations. The Republicans of the house today followed up their recent endorsement of Speaker Reed's policy of postponing the appointment of committees by establishing the policy of bi-weekly meetings through the adoption of a resolution reported by the committee on rules providing that the house shall meet on Mondays and Thursdays until further action.

On this resolution the Democrats and Populists were solidly arrayed against the resolution and it was adopted by a vote of 101 to 83 after a partisan debate.

The resolution adopted by the Democrats and Populists was solidly arrayed against the resolution and it was adopted by a vote of 101 to 83 after a partisan debate.

Another amendment agreed to provide for a continuance of the investigation of the condition of the seal in Luzerne county. The sundry civil bill was passed late in the day.

During the day Mr. Bacon (Georgia), introduced a joint resolution deprecating war and denouncing the policy of the government in favor of arbitration.

The resolution was referred to the committee on foreign relations. The Republicans of the house today followed up their recent endorsement of Speaker Reed's policy of postponing the appointment of committees by establishing the policy of bi-weekly meetings through the adoption of a resolution reported by the committee on rules providing that the house shall meet on Mondays and Thursdays until further action.

On this resolution the Democrats and Populists were solidly arrayed against the resolution and it was adopted by a vote of 101 to 83 after a partisan debate.

MAYOR NAMES MR. DUNNING

He Has Removed Street Commissioner Kinsley for Cause.

Both Communications Referred to Committee.

RESIGNATION NOT EVIDENT

It Is Instructed to Ascertain if the City Would Be Liable for Two Salaries in the Event of the Confirmation of Mr. Dunning--Colonel Sanderson Names His Estimates Committee and Presents Two Appropriation Ordinances--Ordinance Introduced Allowing the Scranton Railway Company to Extend Its Tracks.

As foreshadowed in The Tribune and in line with general expectations, Mayor Bailey last night, at the select council meeting nominated A. B. Dunning, jr., for street commissioner to succeed C. R. Kinsley. In producing a vacancy in which to place Mr. Dunning, his honor did not follow his announced programme of presenting Mr. Kinsley's resignation. Instead he transmitted a communication removing Kinsley for cause, all of which still leaves unsettled the pertinent question: Did the mayor have Kinsley's resignation in his possession, or did he only imagine he had it? The thing was done in two simple communications, reading as follows:

Scranton, May 6, 1897. I hereby remove C. R. Kinsley from the office of street commissioner, for cause. James G. Bailey, Mayor.

Scranton, May 6, 1897. I hereby nominate A. B. Dunning, jr., as street commissioner for the unexpired term of C. R. Kinsley, removed. James G. Bailey, Mayor.

THEY WERE REFERRED. The first communication was referred to committee without any comment or opposition on a motion by Mr. Finn. The second was treated likewise, excepting that Mr. Chittenden asked that the committee be instructed to inquire into the possibility of the city being called upon to pay salary to two street commissioners for the remainder of the present incumbent's term in case Mr. Dunning is confirmed. Only a few took the trouble to vote either motion and none voted against them.

At the very outset of the meeting a little city solicitorship sparring was introduced. Mr. Chittenden moved to expunge from the minutes all references to the Mayor Bailey "joint convention" of the night before. This was done by a strict party vote. Mr. Robinson voting with the Democrats.

The appropriation ordinance, of course, came in for a big share of attention. It was first brought to notice by a communication from City Controller Robinson calling attention to the fact that the estimates committee had failed to provide for one of the fixed charges, the state tax on loans, which the controller admitted, he neglected to incorporate in his estimate. The item amounts to $2,576. To meet it the controller says he can furnish $1,675.73, which is the amount of the surplus from last year in excess of his original statement.

Again the appropriation ordinance and its attendant ruction were brought to view by President Sanderson's appointment of the estimates committee. Before giving the names he expressed regret at being forced by the example of the Democratic majority in the other branch, to break a most worthy precedent and deny the minority its proportionate share of representation. He then read the committee. Finlay Ross is chairman and the other members are William J. Thomas, C. E. Chittenden, C. P. Wagner and Robert Robinson, all Republicans with the exception of the latter.

THE SNAP COMMITTEES. He also announced that Messrs. Wagner and Schroeder would change places on the public buildings committee. Mr. Wagner becoming chairman and Mr. Schroeder succeeded Mr. Wagner as chairman of the paving committee. It was brought from a request from Mr. Wagner that he be relieved from the chairmanship of the paving committee, as his time will not permit him giving it the attention it requires.

Next the appropriation ordinance bobbed up in the shape of a project by Colonel Sanderson to substitute by wa-

THE NEWS THIS MORNING. Weather indications today: Slightly Warmer.

1 (General)--Reported Important Turkish Victory.

2 (Paris)--The Paris Catastrophe, Work Done by Congress.

3 (Sport)--Scranton Beaten in the Ninth, Eastern National and Atlantic League Football Game.

4 (Local)--Miss Parlova's Second Lecture on Domestic Economy.

5 (Local)--West Side and City Suburban.

6 (Local)--Werra, New York.

7 (Local)--Primitive Methodist Conference Chosen.

8 (Local)--Condition of the Coal Trade.

9 (Local)--Financial and Commercial.

DUCHESS D'ALENCON. Sister of the Empress of Austria, and One of the Victims of the Paris Fire.

at the Charity Bazaar in the Rue Jean Goujon on Tuesday afternoon last, must be fixed by the prefecture of police for not having taken proper precautions.

The government has ordered all the subsidized theaters to be closed until Saturday, as a mark of respect for the dead.

To the list of victims must be added the names of Mlle de Chevilly and the Vicomtesse d'Avenal, who have succumbed to the injuries which they sustained while escaping from the fire.

The exact number of dead is not known. It is now estimated that there were about 1,300 persons in the building, about one-half of whom escaped unhurt. Some estimates place the number of dead at 143; others at a still higher figure. One hundred and eleven of the bodies recovered are believed to have been correctly identified.

A NEW YORK WOMAN'S ESCAPE. Mrs. F. Gilmour, of New York, had a narrow escape. She had consented to act as a saleswoman at the stall of Mme. Costa Beauregard. She left the Hotel Terminus, where she was staying, about 1.30, accompanying the Vicomtesse Savigny. The sale was going well, when suddenly her maid cried, "Madame, sauvez vous, vous la feu!" (Madame, save yourself. There's a fire.)

Mrs. Gilmour rushed toward the main entrance, but, seeing the danger of being trampled, she ran quickly back to the rear of the building, where she saw a window that opened in the wall, through which she soon reached the street.

Dr. Naechel, who has directed the ambulance work, says that the number of bodies found gives a very inadequate idea of the number of victims, as dozens were burnt completely to ashes. The Vicomtesse Damas identified his wife's body by a piece of haircloth which she wore as a member of the Third Order of St. Francis. M. Jean Raffalli, the painter, says: "My daughter had the mark of a heel stamped into her neck. She was trampled in the heap at the door near the main entrance. Her mother tried to pull her from the blazing fire; but she said, 'It is useless; save yourself, as I shall die in any case.' Her mother replied, 'I shall not leave you. I will take you or stay and die with you.' Both escaped, though severely injured."

The Abbe Marbot says that the Comtesse Villeneuve returned to search for her two daughters, failed to find them and perished herself.

LUCHESSA D'ALENCON'S DEATH. It is stated in the newspapers that Mlle de L., the daughter of a well known colonel, visited the Duc de Vendome, son of the Duc d'Alencon, yesterday, and repeated a conversation she had with the late Duchesse d'Alencon, who is one of the victims, just before the catastrophe.

"I was talking to the duchess in front of the stall, where I was assisting when I heard a cry of fire and immediately said to the duchess: 'Let us go, madame. Come at once.'"

"I saw the crowd rush from the exits and the flames spreading from hanging to hanging around us, while drops of burning tar fell upon us. I took the duchess by the waist and was dragging her away. I repeated: 'You must come, madame.'"

"I dragged her a few paces, but with a brusque movement she released herself, repeating: 'No! No! I will remain.'"

"As I was suffocating, and the flames had already reached us, I was compelled to abandon her. She stood motionless, then took a few steps toward her stall, her eyes upraised to heaven, as though seeing visions and that was the last I saw of her."

ATLANTA DOCTORS EXONERATED. Charges Against Thirteen Physicians Withdrawn from Medical Society. Atlanta, Ga., May 6--At a very